THE APPROACH

Designed in collaboration with award-winning architects, this sophisticated but traditional house lies in a quiet and peaceful garden - in the rural hamlet of Manningford Abbots. The approach is via a quiet residential lane, where a private driveway winds through the landscaped front gardens, planted with structural shrubs, tall trees and an orchard. The property is nicely tucked away adding to the privacy without compromising its open feel.

This stunning property sits centrally within the site and offers substantial and luxurious accommodation. Arranged over three floors, the 6-bedroom property would have its main living area on the ground floor, with the sleeping accommodation and bathrooms on the levels above.

Aside from the new dwelling, the current application has permission for the erection of an attached garage. The garage, with annex accommodation above, would sit forward and to the side of the property's principal elevation, on the gravelled driveway which doubles as the parking and turning area.

LOCATION

Manorfield Farm sits in the hamlet of Manningford Abbots, in the midst of the Vale of Pewsey.

Within easy reach are the historic towns of Pewsey and Marlborough, which are both popular local centres. These locations provide vibrant communities with a great deal to offer. There is a thriving food and produce culture with numerous award-winning restaurants, pubs and coffee shops.

There are highly regarded schools in the area including Marlborough College, Farleigh, Cheam, St Francis, St Mary's Calne, Twyford, Chafyn Grove and Dauntseys.

The surrounding countryside is interlaced with footpaths and bridleways and is renowned for its scenic walks.

This part of Wiltshire has a number of high-quality public houses and restaurants.

Racecourses within reasonable reach include Newbury, Salisbury, Goodwood, Ascot, Kempton and Sandown. There are golf courses within easy proximity including Upavon, Marlborough and Bowood. There are also a variety of family days out including Highclere Castle, Finkley Down Farm and Charlton Lakeside. It is easy to see why this has become one of the most desirable areas to live in southern England.

QUALITY & CRAFTSMANSHIP

Informed throughout by classical Georgian references, time-honoured craftsmanship, high quality materials and meticulous attention to detail are bound into the fabric of Manorfield Farm. Both traditional and modern materials enhance the charm and grandeur of this country home. Externally, the blue-grey tones of the traditional Welsh slate roof contrast with the soft hues of stone on the window surrounds and quoins, and a cream-coloured lime render finish to the external walls. The wooden box-frame sliding sash windows are made by specialist local joiners and are hand-painted.

A broad stone porch frames the entrance, creating an impressive formal transition into the classically designed interior. Internally, Palladian proportions quickly become evident – high ceilings amplify the natural light and highlight the detail of the elegant cornicing in the reception rooms. Bespoke skirting, architraves and door linings complete the Georgian-inspired interior. On the garden front, an internal orangery overlooks the impressive landscape.

Impeccable attention to detail sets this home apart. Sherbourne Developments source the finest natural stone and wood flooring, beautifully detailed fireplace surrounds, traditionally crafted joinery and luxurious bathrooms and kitchens. The quality of our buildings is to such a level that we believe that we are building the listed houses of the future.

Manorfield Farm exemplifies the uniquely English ability to embrace the present while celebrating the past. Period detailing within the interiors blends seamlessly with the conveniences of modern living. The house features underfloor heating on the ground and first floors, pre-wiring for lighting and select audio-visual systems in several zones and the provision for future commissioning of security and CCTV systems.
